

Mountain Writers Series

Getting Your Writing Out There
a writing workshop
with Judith Pulman

Saturday, March 12, 2016

10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Concordia University Library-GRW 108
2900 NE Liberty, Portland, OR 97221

Think your work is ready to get out into the world? In a supportive group, survey your creative goals and explore the many pathways to share your writing. Leave class with a plan to move your work out from the drawer and into the hearts and minds of others. Local readings, cover letters, conferences, and collaborations will be discussed. All levels. Ages 18 & Up.

Date & Time: 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM, Saturday, March 12, 2016

Cost: $95 (one four-hour Saturday session with a lunch break)

Enrollment: Minimum 4; maximum 12

Place: GRW 108, Concordia University Library, 2900 NE Liberty, Portland OR 97221

Register at www.mountainwriters.org

— Judith Pulman's poems, essays, and interviews have been published in the Writer's Chronicle, Brevity, Los Angeles Review, Water~Stone Review, and Under the Gum Tree. She is currently collaboratively translating a manuscript of Russian poetry into English, a project that was funded by the Regional Arts & Culture Council in 2015. She has received commendations in writing contests and residencies. Judith holds an MFA from the Rainier Writing Workshop and regularly teaches creative nonfiction, poetry, and all-genre classes focused on the joys of discovery.

Presented by Mountain Writers Series and Concordia University Libraries'
Art & Culture Council

Mountain Writers Series
503.232.4517 ~ programs@mountainwriters.org
Register at www.mountainwriters.org